V. OATH OF CERTIFICATION

As an Applicant for Certification through the National Association of Division Order Analysts (NADOA), I do hereby attest that all of the information given is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that failure to disclose any information which might affect my eligibility shall be grounds for denial or revocation of Certification. I further understand that Certification can be denied or revoked for breach of any of the ethical standards as set forth in the Voluntary Certification Policy and NADOA Bylaws.

- (1) I hereby attest that I have never betrayed my employer's trust by using confidential or restricted information for personal gain or for another's benefit.
- (2) I hereby attest that I have never been required to repay any funds to an employer due to embezzlement, fraud, misappropriation of funds, theft, mishandling of monies, or for conspiring to do the same.
- (3) I hereby attest that I have never been convicted, adjudged or otherwise recorded as guilty by any court of competent jurisdiction of a criminal offense involving fraud or any other serious crime.
- (4) I hereby attest that I have never been found liable in any civil action because of failure to perform or a breach of trust/confidence with my employer.

If the applicant cannot attest to any of the above items, please indicate below that to which you cannot attest and explain the circumstances

In making my application, I hereby authorize the Certification Committee to verify this information.

Upon completion of the Application process outlined in Section III C 1 through Section III C 4 of the Voluntary Certification Policy, the Applicant will receive written notice of the final approval, or denial, of his application by the Committee. The Applicant will be notified by Certified Mail should the Committee deny the application. The Applicant may appeal to the NADOA Board of Directors within forty-five days of receipt of said notice. The NADOA Board of Director's decision is final.

I further agree that in the event Certification is denied, or if granted and later withdrawn for any reason, I will make no claim against the NADOA Board of Directors, Certification Committee, individual Committee members, or any person(s) submitting evidence which leads to this action. I hereby agree to indemnify the above-mentioned parties for any attorney's fees and/or court costs which may arise from any civil action initiated by me against NADOA or individuals involved in the Certification process.

Furthermore, I pledge that if I am accepted as a Certified Division Order Analyst, I will endeavor to maintain a high degree of professional competence. I further pledge to act in conformity with the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Division Order Analysts. All my efforts as a CDOA will be directed toward raising the profession to its highest level.
