

The following 2011 Member Recognition Awards were announced at the Friday Lunch Session of the 2011 38th NADOA Annual Institute held at the The Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort & Spa in Savannah, Georgia.

Interaction Award – Susan Bradley

Susan is known as the “guru” of the CDOA database. Susan is currently on the Certification Committee and is the go to person when any CDOA has issues or problems; whether it is a user error or not. She has done an exemplary job in her position of Approval of Credits/Employment.

Education Award – Donna Reeves

Donna has definitely achieved a high level of distinction in NADOA’s educational activities and also in her local chapter’s educational activities. Whether at a local luncheon, a national Institute, a regional seminar or a local division order association seminar, Donna is always happy to contribute her time and efforts to make it the best meeting or seminar possible. Donna has also represented NADOA and the Division Order community as a speaker at Software Conferences and Banking Association Conferences. She has served as NADOA Institute Coordinator, Hotel Chair and Program Chair to name just a few of the positions that Donna has held over the years. She has spent endless hours mentoring new division order analysts and never hesitates to help another Division Order analyst who calls with a question.

Lifetime Achievement Award – Sharon Baugh

Sharon has been the NADOA official “bag lady” for 20 years. Not only has she handled the ordering of the bags but she has organized the delivery of all the submitted “goodie items”. NADOA’s Institutes have benefited from her efficiency as Chairman of the Packet Committee.

Corporate Award – Legacy Royalties/Steve Smith

Legacy Royalties has been a supporter of NADOA for many years. Steve has been a presenter and exhibitor at several of our Institutes. Legacy Royalties continues to support our organization by being a constant advertiser in our NADOA publication. He has also sponsored several Institute events. Steve is always willing to lend a hand where needed in setting up displays at Institute and to be honest, he is just an all-around nice guy.
